Land for Sale.

A tract or parcel of Land, containing between two and three hundred acres, on the north side of Occoquan, in Fairfax county, about 5 miles west of Occoquan mills. It is well watered with never failing springs, it is also well timbered, and the great quantity of far timber on it renders it the more valuable to any person in the country. This land is of the middle soil, and produces corn, wheat, or any other grain tolerable well—there is about 100 acres cleared and under good fence. The improvements are a good dwelling house & other outbuildings, and a good apple orchard of about sixty trees.

ALSO,
One other tract in the same county, within three miles of Occoquan, lying on Sandy Run, containing 47 acres—one half in cultivation and under good fence, the remainder heavily timbered. There are on the premises an old framed dwelling house and out houses and an apple orchard of eighty bearing trees.

Any person inclining to purchase can view the premises and know the terms by applying to the subscriber who lives near them.

Notice.

The public are hereby informed that a company has been formed under the title of THE QUANTICO WAREHOUSE COMPANY. who have erected, one mile below the town of Dumfries, a large and convenient Warehouse on Quantico creek for the storage of flour, grain, etc. which warehouse will be ready for the reception of produce on Monday the third of February. The trustees of said Company have appointed Zebulon Kankey their Agent to attend the said Warehouse, to receive produce on storage and grant receipts for the same. And for the prompt delivery of all articles received in the said warehouse by their agent, (free alone excepted) the Company hold themselves bound.
All persons depositing flour, grain, etc.
must pay, before taken away, the following storage, viz. For each barrel of flour 6 cents; if it remains in said warehouse over 1 month 8 cents; & in the same proportion for the time it may remain. For each bushel of wheat or other grain two cents; if it remains over one month three cents; and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. And for all articles of merchandise a reasonable storage only will be demanded. Persons storing flour may have it inspected, or not, at their option. If not inspected, the agent's receipt will specify the brand and the state of the barrels. The weight of one bushel wheat, running measure of each load or parcel of wheat. All articles stored, the same to be returned to the owner when called for, be it flour, wheat, other grain, etc. Customary allowances for wastage, etc. excepted.

Quantico Warehouse is situated on Quantico Creek, only two miles from its junction with the Potomac river, at all times navigable for lighters. There are belonging to this creek a sufficient number of lighters to ensure a brisk transportation down the creek of all articles stored. Vessels may be got to take produce to the district of Columbia, Baltimore, Norfolk, or elsewhere. The present freights are—To the district twelve and half cents per barrel of flour, and to Baltimore and Norfolk 25 cents from the mouth of Quantico. The proximity of this warehouse to a large extent of country, added to the goodness of roads leading to it from the westward, being little inferior to paved ones. It being found by actual survey little more than 25 miles from Hay Market to Dumfries. will, it is confidently believed by the trustees, by this route greatly lessen the expense of transportation of produce even to the district of Columbia, and they pledge themselves to the public to use every means within their power to give satisfaction.

AN ACT.

To provide for the more easy administration of Justice in this State of Maryland.

1 Be it enacted by the General assembly of Maryland. That this state shall be divided into seven judicial districts, in the manner and form following to wit. St. Mary's, Charles and Prince George's counties, shall be the first district, Cecil Harford and Kent counties, shall be the second district, Calvert, Anne, Arundel and Montgomery counties, shall be the third district, Caroline, Talbot and Queen Anne's counties, shall be the fourth district; Washington, Allegany and Frederick counties, shall be the fifth district. Worcester and Dorchester counties, shall be the sixth district; and Baltimore county, shall be the seventh district.

2 And be it enacted. That there shall be appointed and commissioned for each of the said judicial districts, a person of integrity and sound legal knowledge, who shall be styled in the commission, Chancellor of the District for which he shall be commissioned, and who shall pre-vions to, and during his acting as chancellor of the judicial district reside in the same district for which he shall be commissioned, and the chancellor so as aforesaid to be commissioned, shall hold and exercise in the judicial district for which he shall be commissioned, all and every the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, which the chancellor of this state now has, or the county courts of this state, as courts of chancery now have, or which may hereafter be prescribed by law, and the said chancellor shall hold court of chancery, to be erected and that. He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man. Indeed scarce any their respective judicial districts, at such places, and at such times, as the legislature shall hereafter direct and appoint.

3. And be it enacted, That the court of appeals as now established, instead of being composed of the chief judges of the several judicial districts, shall be composed of the chancellor of the judicial districts, embraces of pleasure in her grossest who shall, when sitting in the court and most disgusting forms. Always of appeals, be styled judges of the court of appeals.

4. And be it enacted. That appeals may be prosecuted from the evidence and very shortly, they come decrees of decisions of the said chancellors to the court of appeals, in destitute in circumstances and con-the same manner that is now used tem-perable in character; a further or prescribed for appeals from the court of chancery to the court of appeals, or a the Legislature shall hereafter direct; and the judge who as chancellor may have given the deceit or decision, shall withdraw from the bench in deciding the same case in the court of appeals.

5. And be it enacted, That the clerks of the several county courts, except the clerk of Baltimore county shall be the register of the court of chancery in their respective counties, and that the chancellor of the district in which each of the land offices shall be held, shall be the judge thereof.

6. And be it enacted. That the chancellor of the third judicial district shall be the keeper of the great seal of this state, and act as such.

7. And be it enacted, That there shall be appointed and commissioned for each county of the several judicial districts, (except the seventh judicial district, one person of integrity and sound legal knowledge, resident of the judicial district for which he shall be commissioned, who during his acting as judge shall actually reside in the county for which he shall be commissioned; and the said judges shall compose the county courts of the judicial district for which they shall be commissioned.

8. And be it enacted, That each of the said judges shall respectively be the chief justice of the orphans court of the several counties for which they shall respectively be commissioned.

9. And be it enacted, That there shall be appointed and commissioned for the seventh judicial district, three persons of integrity and sound legal knowledge as judges thereof, who shall at the appointment be residents of the said judicial district, and who during their acting as judges thereof shall actually reside therein, who shall compose the county & orphans courts of the said judicial district.

10. And be it enacted, That the said chancellors and judges shall hold their commissions during good behavior, removable for misbehavior on conviction in a court of law, or shall be removed by the governor, upon the address of the General Assembly provided two thirds of all the members of each house concur; and the salaries of the said chancellors and judges shall not be diminished during the period of their continuance in office, and if either of the said chancellors, or judges, shall remove from the judicial district or county for which he shall have been commissioned, then and in that case his commission shall be vacated; and it shall not be lawful for the said chancellors, or judges, to officiate as an officer or director of any bank, and if any shall so officiate his commission shall be vacated.

11. And be it enacted, That all and every part of the constitution & form of government which relates to the chancellor and the register in chancery, be and the same are hereby repealed and annulled, and that all and every part thereof which relates to the courts, or the judges thereof, inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same is hereby repealed, abrogated and annulled, upon the confirmation thereof.

12. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the General Assembly after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alteration and amendment of the constitution in this act contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing in the said constitution and form of government to the contrary notwithstanding.

THE BRIEF REMARKER.

It is an irrefragable maxim, as well of experience as of revelation, that He that loveth pleasure shall
be a poor man. Indeed scarce any maxim is so fully sanctioned by experience; since, in all ages, and among all ranks and classes, an inordinate love of pleasure has proved the certain road to want and ruin.
Most strikingly is verified this axiom in the instances of those chief judges of the several judicial districts, who give up themselves, soul and body, to the chancellor of the judicial districts,
embraces of pleasure in her grossest
who shall, when sitting in the court
and most disgusting forms. Always
of appeals, be styled judges of the court of appeals.

Mark him again in his next stage, when youth is just ripened into the maturity of manhood.

See his bloated countenance, his livid cheek, his beamless eye.
Once more, mark his mid-age.
The crop is now fully ripe. See what it is: squalid poverty; faint mental imbecility; alike loathsome and self loathing.

Finally, mark his end. This man of pleasure, when after a wretched scene of vanity & vice, his animal nature is worn to the stump

Now he is sick of life and bitterly laments the tardiness of time; a con-

THE BRIEF REMARKER.

It is an irrefragable maxim, as old as the hills, that a man should be what he is. He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man. Indeed scarce any maxim is so fully sanctioned by experience, as perience; since, in all ages, and in all countries, the love of pleasure has proved the certain road to want and ruin. Most strikingly verified this maxim is, in the instances of those who are called debauchees, who give up the pleasures of the soul and body, to the pleasures of the flesh, and in the most disgusting forms. Always after a short run, come out not merely poor, but poor creatures, in the most deplorable and very shortly, they come to be the poorest of the poor; alike in their circumstances and in their character; a burden to their friends, and a heavier burden to themselves.

Mark the young beginner in the career of profligacy; one not of the baser nor even of the common sort—draw a child of fortune, a heritor of wealth. How accomplished! how elegant! how bly he and jovial!

Mark him again in his next stages, when youth is just ruffled into the maturity of manhood.

"It thou beest he, but O how fallen! how changed!"

See his blighted countenance, his livid cheek, his beamless eye.

Once more, mark his mid-age. The crop is now fully ripe. See what it is: squalid poverty; toothsome disease; bodily decrepitude and mental imbecility; alike toothsome and self-destroying.

Finally, mark his end. "This man of pleasure, when after a seventh wretched scene of vanity & woe, his animal nature is worn to the stump, wishes and dreads death, by turns. Now he is sick of life, and bitterly wishes the tardiness of time; a moment he starts back with horror, lest the hour should not prove a dreamless sleep."

The classes of downright drunkards and debauchees include however, but a small proportion of the hapless mortals whom the siren pleasures of the world allure to their ruin and destruction.

"Come on, let us enjoy the good things that are present. Let us crown ourselves with rose-leaves before they be withered." With such language it is that the surreptitious persuaders and prompts the youthful heart, nor does the persuasive and prompt in vain. The delirious poison insinuates itself and who spreads over the whole frame. The youthful youth thus infected, becomes what he is in all his ways. All close and steady application, whether to study or to business, he heartily loathes. The holding industry of every kind he regards with scorn. To make as it were a holiday of the whole year or round, is the object of his desire and the summit of his ambition. As years multiply upon him, his habits of idleness are but the more riveted. He is within the circumference of a whirlpool with a heart and mind too enervated to force his way back. Perhaps he remains however, on the extremity and never in his whole life time is drawn to the fatal centre, where is utter wreck of reputation and of the whole moral frame. Perhaps he escapes the grosser vices. Perhaps no foul blot cleaves to his character and that the worst which can be said of him is, that he is a careless, imprudent, and improvident man, a mighty lover of jolly company; that he is here, and there and every where, except at home and about his own proper business.

Lucky indeed if he is no worse off; but lucky as he is he must needs be a poor man; poor in circumstances, & of an almost worthless character at best. If left with a fortune, it melts away in his improvident hands. If he begin the world without fortune, he lays up nothing for sickness and old age; instead of which he ever lives beyond his income, by leeching his friends, and abusing the confidence of his creditors. If he have a family, his family this wife mingles her scanty meal with her tear, while their children receive little from him but an example that powerfully tends to lead them astray. In short, he is exactly such as no downright honest and honorable man would choose to be. If all were like him, poverty, wretchedness and misery, would pervade the whole fabric of human society.

It needs scarcely be added, that a lover of pleasure (even one of the comparatively innocuous sort, last mentioned) seldom enjoys his proportionable share of that commodity; at most, his vain and empty pleasure is so mixed up with vexation of spirit, that he more abundantly feels the want than enjoys the other. Not to mention, that an idle, useless life, however free from gross immorality, is in the sight of heaven, a criminal life; it is burying the talent that ought to have been employed diligently, and to useful purposes.

We have received our earthly existence not on conditions of our own prescribing, but on the conditions prescribed by him who made us. With respect to the present life, as well as that which is to come, it holds good that, as we sow, so also shall we reap. If we cut up the seed, we prevent the crop. If we sow the seeds of idleness and profligacy, we shall reap the fruits of poverty and shame. There is no such thing as abolishing, or bending, or evading the fixed laws of nature; whether we like them or not, they will go steadily into effect.

See you a young man diligent in his business, frugal, prudent and sober? You see one who will be respectable, who, in all probability, will enjoy, through life, at least a competence, and who will be a blessing to his family, to his friends & to society at large. On the other hand, when you see a young man idle, improvident, extravagant, avers from all regular and close attention to useful business, and practically saying, in the general course of their lives, "Go to now, let us enjoy pleasure; you then see such as are spending, if not into atrocious crimes, at least into the condition of beggary; want; such as will wring the hearts of fathers, mothers, wives and children; such as will be a blot upon society, rather than its ornament and its members.

Even worldly by interest imperiously requires self-denial. One who can deny himself of nothing, will be good for nothing, however excellent be his talents, and however great his advantages. To learn youths the path of self-denial, is one of the essential branches of good education; which is best done by storing their minds, sensibly, with the precepts, prohibitions, and warnings, contained in the Holy Bible. Next to this, they should by all means be kept from contracting habits of idleness and dissipation, and be so inured to some kind or other of laudable industry, that their very toil, whether of business or of study, will at length be a pleasure.

ALEXANDRIA.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17.

Extract of a Letter from Richmond, dated 15th.

"The bill to incorporate a company to cut a canal from Goose Creek to Hunting Creek, has become a law. Books are to be opened at Winchester, Martinsburg, Leesburg and Alexandria, for the subscription of the capital, which is Five Hundred Thousand Dollars. The names of the commissioners at Alexandria, are Charles Simms, Thomas Swann, Edmund I. Lee, Robert Young, George Deneale, John Thomas Ricketts, and Thomson Mason."

Extract of another letter, dated the 15th.

"The convention bill which has occupied so much time, was yesterday lost in the senate by a vote of 12 to 9. By way of substitute it is proposed by law to change the arrangement of the senatorial districts, a bill to effect this has passed the house of delegates, and is now under consideration in the senate."

The late Enquirer speaks of the constant adherence of this state to the principles of 1797 & 8.

No war.

No standing army in time of peace.

No borrowing money at 3 or any other per centage.

Legislative instruction to destroy the navy.

No direct or indirect taxes.

No increase of the national debt.

We might fill a column of immunities of this sort. What will not some men say?

[Mr. Pat.

Mr. Snowden.

See, a communication appeared a few days past in the Herald, inviting donations on our municipal regulations. It is much to be lamented, that the necessity should exist of placing before the world, our little internal jars, or that our police should become a subject of such general notoriety. It is not the wish of the writer of this communication to hold forth to public scrutiny the conduct of any individual officer, yet when investigation is invited, and when an officer openly and boldly brags of his own praise, and declares his contempt of the consideration allowed, and avows himself to be a creature of the public interest, and out his own, and true too in the face of the opinion of men of equal respectability with himself, it is well to call an enquiry that if a fact, the unfavorable impressions on the mind of many may be removed, and the officer receive from the public the credit to which he is entitled. The officer alluded to is the police lieutenant of police. From the mild and gentle manner in which the writer in the Herald touches on the subject, he seems to be uninformed of the public impressions in relation to this officer and his duty, not that the salary allowed him is considered extravagant, but that the manner in which he has been employed with his office, and have been used by him for his own and not the general interest.

On examination of the laws of this city, it appears, that at first it was only contemplated to build a two story market house, that being considered sufficient for the uses of the town—yet we are in three. The on this subject the attention of the public, and the parties concerned, is requested, as in other respects the conduct of the superintendent is admitted to be unbecomingly. That the change made by and with the assent of a council, though not confirmed by law is admitted. Yet, how this assent was obtained, whether from a conviction of its superior elegance or necessity, or both, is a subject on which the public are unenlightened. It is, that it was stated by the superintendent of police (that deemed by more competent judges,) that from the manner in which the second story was erected, it was impossible to make a finish of the building without the addition of a third story, and it is also certain, that the alteration in the plan of the second story, was prior to the assent to the operation by council. Your correspondent is informed, whether correctly or not, he does not say, that several of the members of council have acknowledged that the committee and council were in this instance completely outwitted by the superintendent and contractors, and if inferences are to be drawn from the law and circumstances, it so appears, as the law only contemplates a market house corresponding with the old one. But this change the public seem to consider of secondary importance—the of the superintendent and his contractors they have no complaint. It is stated that by a law or order of council the Superintendent is restricted from having any connection or interest with the contractor for the building, whether so or not is a subject for investigation, it is at least a prudent dictate; certain it is there is a law prohibiting him from having any connection with the contractor for cleaning the streets, and it cannot possibly be supposed, that council could have omitted restricting or prohibiting his connection in a contract of such importance to the town, and where too his interest was so immediately concerned. If they have placed him under such restrictions, how is it that this officer has furnished all the lumber necessary for the building, except in a few instances, and that alone when his own lumber yard would not furnish the materials. The public have never been apprised by this officer, as was his duty, that he was ready to contract for the building or materials, neither do they know that he has himself contracted with the committee of superintendents; that he has not contracted with the committee, is confirmed by his application to a lumber merchant, who furnished such lumber as he had not to make a similitude in the price of the article charged, which was dissented to. Whatever may be the relation of the superintendent of police, as to contract certain it is, that the lumber furnished by him is of inferior quality to that furnished by others, and certain it is that not the cost, but the quality of the articles, and the conduct of the superintendent, has excited unfavorable impressions on the public mind, and extreme solicitude for information of the nature of the charges made in his report of estimates up to the present time, which is stated to be between eleven and fifteen thousand dollars; another cause of dissatisfaction is, that by the secret manner in which the superintendent has discharged his duty in relation to this building, that carpenters work has from report cost the town 20 per cent more than it otherwise might have done, had he given publicity to the contract; the present contractor, a member of council, having made a contract with another person, for the completion of the building for 10 per cent less than he contracted for.

The writer of this communication wishes it to be understood, that he does not intend to cast censure on the gentleman composing the committee of superintendence of intentional omission of duty, as he is fully satisfied that the duties assigned them. Neither does he accuse the superintendent with the neglects; he merely states the public opinion and public report, which he hopes will prove unfounded on an investigation, which investigation he sanguinely hopes will be demanded by the superintendent; but should it be declined on his part, he is justified in stating that the public is solicited that the subject should be taken up by council and referred to a committee of citizens, one from each ward (not lumber merchants or carpenters) whose experience in building and contracts will enable them to report thereon as to the facts in general.

PAUL'S Patent Columbian Oil.

In respect to which the Proprietor observes—

"THE great sales of the Columbian Oil, since it has been brought before the public, prove its intrinsic value, and is a pleasing foreboding of what we have to expect from its more extensive circulation.

Many interesting certificates might be furnished, testifying to the great value of the Columbian Oil, but we have preferred giving but few, wishing to rest more on the merits of the medicine, than on the effects produced by certificates from a source however respectable.

The following are among the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found very efficacious, viz. rheumatism, consumption, gout, pains in any part of the body, but more particularly of the back and breast; asthma, phthisis, influenza, colds, coughs, whooping cough, diseases of the eye and eye lids, tooth-ache, ear ache, and deafness, cholera, cramps, external and internal bruises, sprains and flesh wounds, old sores, ulcers, felons, scalds, burns, rumps, erysipelas or flux, cramp, quinsy, diphtheria, or lax, summer complaint of children, indigestion, loss of appetite, nervous debility, piles, mercurial diseases, especially in those cases where the system has been changed with mercury for some considerable time, and in those exerting its influence subsequent to its too great use and exposure. Herpes, or diseases of the skin, such as ring worms, tetters, scald head, &c. stiffness of joints and limbs, palsy, ague and fever, cholera morbus, gravel, gleetes, obstructed urine, scurvy, and in almost all cases of a general or local nature.

We are aware that in recommending a medicine in so many diseases, the public, especially those who have not used the Oil, may be induced to question its virtues, but a disposition to question its nature will soon be dissipated, when they are informed that a great proportion of the diseases are owing to the same general cause—And in those cases where the diseases differ materially in their nature, the effects produced are nearly the same, although not on the same principle.

A supply of the above just received and for sale by RICHARD H. LITTLE, Druggist, King street.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

ROCKFELLER, KING STREET,
Have just received from LEES PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York A FRESH SUPPLY
Of the following genuine Medicines.
For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventive feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of his salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe headache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions of the bowels in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles, so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and most energetic purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Terebra, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small may-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of oints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fecid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face oiled and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of chint—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the health of the infant part of our citizens.

It likewise the weakest and in remedy known, and has restored health and strength a great number who in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given to every part of the necessary treatment in such cases. Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, asthma, palsy, lumbago, numbness, swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant ingredients (the basis of other lotions) and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurf, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth, and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication, or any other destructive intemperance, the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at certain period of life, bad lymgs in, &c.

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR.

Sovereign remedy for Colds, Asthma, Coughs, Asthmas, sore throats, and approaching Consumptions, and most disorders of the breast and lungs.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature, weakness or of accident.

Teatle Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered, which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Lee's Infalible Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of agues, remittent, and intermittent fevers.

Han's true & genuine Geyman Corn Plaster.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

Two Runaway Boys.

Ran away, on the 8th December 1816, from the Clifton Factory, in St. Mary's county, Maryland, two apprentice boys, named James Allen & Wm Hilton, each about 17 or 18 years old. Allen has a round face, small hands and feet, stoops forward when walking, speaks slow, and is small for his age—he has a mother living in Alexandria by the name of Downs, whose husband, hereafter named, is a waterman. Hilton, also speaks slow and smiling, has large feet and remarkable long legs; he has a grand mother living near Chaplin, St. Mary's County, Maryland, who is the only relative he has living. Their clothing is country made, unless changed for deception.

All masters of vessels and other persons are hereby warned not to harbor or employ said apprentices at their peril. Hilton has always had a desire to follow the water, therefore will probably be sailing about the docks of the town.

They have gone off without the least provocation or offence either to their master or on the part of the Company to whom they are bound to learn the manufacturing business.

Ten Dollars for each, or either, will be paid by us to any person who will take up and secure these boys so that we get them again, and if brought home all reasonable charges paid by
